

"It Is Lawful To Do Good On The Sabbath"
Luke 13:10-17

"We can possess a zeal for religion or doctrine that has nothing to do with God, and we can have a zeal for love that has nothing to do with God. In both cases how we are viewed is our primary concern, not how God is viewed."

"And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all." (1 Thessalonians 5:14). "If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together." (1 Corinthians 12:26). "Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you." (Ephesians 4:32)

- Luke 13:10-21
 - "Now He (Jesus) was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath."
 - "And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as was His custom, He went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and He stood up to read." (Luke 4:16)
 - The Significance of the Sabbath:
 - It gave them a day of rest from their labors to enjoy and worship God (Exodus 20:8-11).
 - It was a reminder to Israel that they were God's chosen/holy people (Exodus 31:13).
 - It was a reminder to the Nation of Israel that God is their Creator (Exodus 31:17).
 - It was a reminder to them that they had been delivered by God from slavery (Deuteronomy 5:12-15).
 - It pointed to the work of Christ that would free mankind from their slavery to sin and their need to keep the law perfectly to be accepted by God (Matthew 11:28-30; Hebrews 4:1-16).
 - "Woman, you are freed from your disability."
 - "So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and struck Job with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head." (Job 2:7)
 - "When He saw the crowds, He had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36). "When He went ashore He saw a great crowd, and He had compassion on them and healed their sick." (Matthew 14:14). "I have compassion on the crowd because they have been with Me now three days and have nothing to eat." (Matthew 15:32)
 - "But when Jesus heard it He said, 'This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.'" (John 11:4)
 - "Then the Lord answered him, 'You hypocrites.'
 - "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me; in vain do they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men." (Matthew 15:8-9; cf. Luke 14:1-5; Matthew 12:12-13)
